INTRODUCTION.

AT its annual meeting in March, 1889, the town of Lancaster made appropriation for the preservation in print of its older records of births, marriages and deaths. The publication was by vote entrusted to Doctor Horace M. Nash, town-clerk, and Henry S. Nourse. The latter was designated as editor of the work, and is solely responsible for the manner of its execution.

The returns of the town's first Clerk of the Writs, Ralph Houghton, until October, 1674, were made to the recorder of the Middlesex County Court as required by a law enacted June 14, 1642. A single ragged and discolored leaf of his original manuscript, containing the record of fifty births before 1666, is preserved in the town's archives, having been fortuitously discovered, in 1826, among family papers. More than ten years had elapsed after the setting up in the Nashua valley of the first roof-tree by white men, before Ralph Houghton entered upon his duties as clerk of the writs, and his records are chargeable with some omissions.

The returns of the second clerk, Cyprian Stevens, are found in the Middlesex Registry duly copied from 1680 to 1687. During the interval of six years in which no reports were made to the recorder, there occurred two bloody raids by Indians upon Lancaster, and a temporary abandonment of the settlement. The lists of the numerous victims in the massacres by savages have been compiled from various authorities.

Records of marriages in Lancaster, in obedience to a law dated December 1, 1716, began to be annually given in to the Clerk of the Sessions of the Peace for Middlesex in 1718, and are found registered until 1730. Between 1686 and 1726 all regular town records are wanting, a volume having, it is conjectured, been destroyed by fire. During the whole of this period John Houghton was probably the town-clerk. The church records extant open with the settlement of Reverend John Prentice in 1708.

A volume of the ancient records of the town, printed by the editor of the present compilation in 1884, contains in its appendix memoranda of such births, marriages and deaths in Lancaster families, previous to 1700, as could be anywhere found duly attested. To make the present register complete in itself, these memoranda are now reprinted with suitable re-arrangement.

INTRODUCTION.

It is commonly known that in March 1880 the town of Lancaster made application for the protection of its rights in the matter of the Lancaster and North Yorkshire Railway. The result of this was the appointment of a committee of the town and the railway company. The latter was designated as the committee of the town, and the former as the committee of the railway.

The oldest book containing continuous registry of "Marriages, Deaths, Births and Publishments in Lancaster," was opened by Jonathan Houghton, fourth town-clerk, upon his election to office in 1726. Many earlier dates have been inserted by him and other clerks, probably derived from family memorials. He began his chronicles upon the tenth page, as though reserving room for those of previous years, if by chance any should be recovered; but his successors used the sheets he left blank for miscellaneous items. This book sufficed for the town's use during about ninety years, and contains three hundred and sixty pages, crowded with a disorderly mass of material, which is here copied without impertinence of alteration in order, orthography or even punctuation.

Until the statute of 1844 enforced a special form of registry, the town-clerks continued the records in two volumes—one devoted to births and deaths, the other to publishments and marriages. With these two books the plan of the present work might appropriately end—thus covering two hundred years from the building of the first house by Englishmen upon Lancaster soil. As, however, numerous items of dates earlier than 1844 are found in a fourth book, and for the convenience of a more definite period, the lists of births, deaths and marriages have been brought down to January 1, A. D. 1850. To perfect this printed register so far as is practicable, not only county, town and church records have been transcribed, when not duplicate, but numerous names and dates have been added from the inscriptions in burial grounds, the bible records of old families, and other sources duly specified.

By comparing the town records with those of the church, or epitaphs, numerous discrepancies in dates will be noticed. The frequent omission of middle names by the recorders, and peculiarities in orthography, cause some confusion of persons: this has been remedied, so far as possible, in the index which has been studiously revised.

The first birth certified to by Ralph Houghton was that of Joseph, son of Lawrence Waters, April 29, 1647. As both the Prescott and Waters families were resident on the Nashua two years before, and the births of Adam Waters and Jonathan Prescott were not recorded at Watertown, there is good reason for supposing that they were born in Lancaster during 1645 or 1646. Houghton also omits the birth of Jonas Prescott in 1648.

The first attested death in the town was that of Rachel, infant daughter of Lawrence Waters, in March, 1649.

The first marriage consummated in Lancaster was doubtless that of Jonas Fairbank and Lydia Prescott, in May, 1658; for solemnizing which Mr. John Tinker received special license from the court. Before that year the several couples joined in wedlock—after their intention had been three times published in open meeting, or advertised for fourteen days by a notice affixed to the meeting-house doors—were forced to journey, on horseback, to Sudbury, Concord, or even Boston, to obtain some magistrate's seal to the civil contract.

All Marriages in New England were formerly performed by the Civil Magistrate, but of late [1720] they are more frequently solemnized by the Clergy, who imitate the Method prescribed by the Church of England except the Collects and the Ceremony of the Ring.—Daniel Neal's History of New England

For the aid of those who may be unfamiliar with the "old-style" method of reckoning time, it is deemed expedient here to state that, during the lives of the first clerks of Lancaster, the heathen names of months and days were seldom used, the ordinal numbers being substituted therefor. In English Church and Court the year began with Lady Day; March being therefore the first month, and January the eleventh. The present mode of computing time from January 1 as New Year's Day was already in use in Scotland and other states of Europe, and signs of the growing change in custom are visible in our early records. In all dates between January 1 and March 25, it became the fashion to indicate not only the year according to English reckoning, but that recognized in Scotland. The change from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar was, by act of parliament, adopted September 2, 1752, when eleven days were dropped, the next day becoming the fourteenth. For all dates previous to that, therefore, in order to bring them into accord with the present calendar, it is necessary to add twelve days to the date, if before March, 1700; or eleven days, if subsequent to that day. Thus the destruction of Lancaster would be recorded as 10, 12^{mo}., 1675; or February 10, 1675-6; or $16\frac{7}{8}$; being according to the modern calendar, February 22, 1676.

Words or syllables enclosed in brackets are interpolations by the editor, usually to supply omissions, or to suggest explanation or correction of the record. The numerals at the left margin indicate the paging of the original books.

TOWN RECORDS.

The veteran town-clerk, Josiah Flagg, in transcribing the subjoined list of births upon pages 198, 199 and 200 of Book 1, prefaced it with this statement:

The following is a true copy of a record taken from a leaf of an ancient Record Book which I found among the papers of the late Capt. Hezekiah Gates, who died about fifty years ago.

LANCASTER, March 28th, 1826.

The aged manuscript is in the neat handwriting of Ralph Houghton, the first clerk of Lancaster. A photographic reproduction of the first page, in lineal dimensions two-thirds the size of the original, is herewith presented.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY RECORDS.

The lost leaves of Ralph Houghton's manuscript, and subsequent records for many years, must be supplied from the copies of returns made to the Middlesex County court by him and his successors. These are found in the Records of Births, Deaths and Marriages, Liber III, pages 115 and 106; and Liber IV, pages 39 to 42, 121, 195, 206, 212 to 214. BOOK III.

RECORD OF PUBLISHERMENTS AND MARRIAGES.

1815—

The third volume of records is not paged. Each entry was formally attested by the town clerk, and the certified returns annually received from justices and clergymen were copied in full—commonly following the form of the marriage and publishment certificates first given below. The notices of marriage intentions being usually supplemented within a month by registry of the marriage, those publishments only are here printed which are not followed by a marriage certificate, or which contain information not in the certificate. The following is an accurate transcript of all essential facts in the record, leaving out verbiage. By collation with the original memoranda kept by the Reverends Messrs. Thayer, Sears and Packard, sundry omissions have been made good, and errors noted.

RECORDS OF THE FIRST CHURCH.

Of existing records appertaining to the church in Lancaster, the oldest book opens with a copy of the covenant as renewed at the time of the ordination of Reverend John Prentice, March 29, 1708, and closes with an account of the ordination of Reverend Nathaniel Thayer, October 9, 1793. The second book continues the records to the end of the pastorate of Reverend Edmund Hamilton Sears, April 1, 1847.

Pages of both books devoted to matters of church discipline and polity, and sundry stray items relating to these subjects, are omitted herein as beyond the purpose of this volume, such omissions being noted by asterisks. The marriage lists are the originals of returns made to the town-clerks, and have been given on previous pages.

Reverend John Prentice married Mrs. Mary Gardner, the widow of his predecessor, at Roxbury, December 4, 1703; and second, Mrs. Prudence (Foster) Swan of Charlestown, probably in 1719. Mr. Prentice in 1708 signed the covenant, and added beneath it the names—Thomas Wilder, John Houghton, Joseph Whetcomb, John Wilder, Jeremiah Willson, John Rugg and Jonathan Moor. These eight may have been the only male members of the church at that date. There are also subscribed, not always in their own handwriting, the names of twenty-nine men admitted to membership from time to time—less than one-fourth the number of males accepted as communicants during the pastorate of Mr. Prentice. These were, in order of admission but not of signing: John Priest, Josiah White, Josiah Wheeler, James Wilder, Joseph Wilder, John Warner, Samuel Warner, Jabez Fairbank, Benjamin Wilson, Daniel Rugg, Edward Phelps, John Harris, Jonas Houghton, Jonathan Houghton, Jabez Fairbank [Jr.], Hooker Osgood, Joseph Hutchins, Joshua Osgood, John Bennett, Thomas Houghton, Ephraim Houghton, Joseph Whitcomb, [Jr.], Oliver Moor, Joseph More, David Osgood, Samuel Willard, Joseph Wilder, Jr., Stanton Prentice, Josiah Swan. Then follow the records kept by the pastors.

Twenty-three pages of the first Church Book, and one hundred of the second, are devoted to Votes, Regulations, Councils, etc., not hereinbefore copied. The more important portions of them have already been printed by Reverend Abijah P. Marvin in his History of Lancaster. A list of the Deacons of the First Church, compiled from sundry sources, may, however, appropriately be given here.

The first deacon, and probably the only one before the massacre of 1676, was Roger Sumner. Between 1676 and 1715, no deacon is named in existing records:

BOOK OF RECORDS

FOR

YE SECOND CHH. IN LANCASTER.

1744—

The southern part of the Additional Grant to Lancaster was known by its Indian name, Woonksechocksett—usually abbreviated to Chocksett. There a "second church" was gathered, and Reverend John Mellen was ordained pastor over it December 19, 1744. In the political ferment that preceded the rebellion against monarchy, all the pulpits about Lancaster were shaken, and Mr. Mellen's was overturned. A long and bitter wrangle, the details of which occupy about half the pages of the church book, resulted in dismissal of the pastor, November 14, 1774. He served in the relations of minister to the less radical members of the parish, until after its incorporation as a town with the name Sterling, April 25, 1781. Reverend Reuben Holcomb was ordained over the church June 2, 1779. Both Mr. Mellen's and Mr. Holcomb's returns of Lancaster marriages appear on previous pages, as copied into the town's book. If Mr. Mellen kept a record of deaths, it was probably given in to the town-clerks from time to time, but no death list of his appears in the church book.

The records of the Second, or West Precinct Church, open with the usual covenant, the subscribers to which, eighteen in number, were:

EPITAPHS IN LANCASTER BURIAL GROUNDS OF DATE PRIOR TO 1850.

THE OLD BURIAL FIELD.

The founders of the town, and their descendants during the 17th century at least, buried their dead without formal services—following the custom of the Puritans in England—and perhaps a plot of ground for the family graves was sometimes selected within the home lot or orchard. Early in the present century ancient graves were visible near the sites of both the Roper and the Prescott garrisons. But in the infancy of the Nashaway Plantation, land adjoining the meeting-house site was set apart for common use as a “burying place.” The practice of marking graves by incised headstones probably did not begin until after the resettlement, one apparent exception being that of Mrs. Dorothy Prescott, who died in 1674. The oldest date now to be found is that over the grave of the first John Houghton—1684. For half a century all memorial stones were but fragments of slate riven from some ledge, or rough granite slabs, upon which unskilled hands rudely incised name and date,—the latter being often upon a foot-stone or on the back of the head-stone. Many of the older inscriptions are illegible to most eyes. In his History of Lancaster, Reverend A. P. Marvin has given a plan of this ancient burial place, upon which the marked graves are located and numbered, and has added literal copies of the epitaphs. In the following carefully revised list of inscriptions the same numbering is adopted. Their arrangement is indicated by division lines. Numbers omitted are of stones not lettered, or of misplaced foot-stones found to belong with other numbers.

HARRIET, | Daughter of | Mr. Henry and | Mrs. Achsah Moore | died | April
8, 1826, | Aet. 14 mo. & 14 da.

In Memory of | DAVID STEUART ROBERTSON, | Second son of the late John
Robertson, Esqr. | of Foveran House, Aberdeenshire. | Born in Scotland, | Educated at Rugby in England, | And at Giessen, in Germany, | In which country, as well as in Sicily, | He had spent several years, | At the age of twenty-three,
| He came to America. | Having, after various experience of the Old World, |
Acquired an ardent love for the New, | He settled in this town of Lancaster, |
And became a citizen of the United States. | Deceased on the twenty first of July, | A. D. MDCCCXLIX. | In the thirtieth year of his age.

Here Steuart sleeps—and should some brother Scot
Wander this way, and pause upon the spot,
He need not ask, now life's poor show is o'er,
What arms he carried, or what plaid he wore;
So small the value of illustrious birth,
Brought to this solemn, last assay of earth:
Yet, unproved, his epitaph may say,
A royal soul was wrapt in Steuart's clay,
And generous actions consecrate his mound
More than all titles, though of kingly sound.

Mrs. Ann Quincy, | Relict of | Josiah Quincy | Esq. | Late of | Braintree. |
Died Feb. 17, | 1805. | A. E. 80.

A chearful heart was hers, and free from guile; | She showed that piety and age could smile;
Religion had her heart, her cares, her voice, | 'Twas her last refuge as her earliest choice
Like a tird traveler, with sleep oppress'd | Within her children's arms she sank to rest.
Heaven did her life prolong to spread its praise, | And bless'd her with a patriarch's length of days.

Here lie the remains of | ELOISE RICHARDS PAYNE, | Who departed this life | July 3 1819. | Aet. 31. | She will be talked of | but a little while, | and | forgotten by society, | will survive only in a few hearts, | where the memory of such a Being | is immortal.

Sink into dust, | frail covering of a purified spirit! | Parent earth receive thine own!
God in Heaven, | Take her soul to thee!

Here sleeps | what was mortal | of | ELIZA | QUINCY | PACKARD, | dau^t. of
Rev. Asa Packard. | She died suddenly | Nov^r. 18th. A. D. 1816 | Aet. 24.

An | improved mind, | a heart and Life | enriched with early | Piety, endeared her | where she was known, | and rendered her death | deeply lamentable. | Thy will Father,
be done! | I am the resurrection | and the life! | Listening for the triumph of the Arch
Angel. | In CHRIST they sleep | who bore on earth his cross. | Till from the tomb their dust shall rise | In his own image to the skies.

THE CHOCKSETT PRECINCT BURIAL GROUND. 1736-1781.

The first meeting-house in the Second Parish of Lancaster was opened for public use November 28, 1742; but during five or more years previous to this date, the families in that quarter of the town had grown sufficiently numerous to organize neighborhood meetings under the leadership of Josiah Brown, a young clergyman there resident. From this fact, and from the evidence of the memorial to the Dresser children, it may be inferred that the third place of burial in Lancaster was public ground as early as 1736. Throwing doubt upon such inference, however, is the statement of a historian in the Worcester Magazine of 1826, that Gamaliel Beaman's burial in 1745 was the first within the parish.

THE MIDDLE CEMETERY.

In May, 1798, a committee, elected to procure and lay out new burial grounds, bought of Reverend Nathaniel Thayer and Honorable John Sprague one acre and twenty-four rods of land lying in rectangular form, sixteen rods in length on the highway, and eleven and one-half rods in width. According to their report, they "agreed to pay Mr Thayer fifty dollars on his executing a deed to Mr Sprague of the Gore of Land between the old and new burying fields, which he agrees to receive in exchange for what the Town will have of him, and each of them giving a deed to the Town, agreeably to the plan." In 1842, this field being crowded with graves, about one-half acre was added to it, on the west end, by purchase of the widow of Nathaniel Thayer, D. D.; and space for two tiers of lots along the whole front was gained by enclosing common land on the highway, removing therefrom the hearse-house and town pound which had for many years been obtrusive features of this locality. The following is a carefully revised transcript of all inscriptions in this populous field bearing date earlier than 1850:

THE BURIAL PLACE OF THE SHAKER COMMUNITY.

In 1781 Mother Ann Lee and the Shaker elders came from Watervliet to eastern Massachusetts upon a proselyting tour. During the two years of her sojourn here, she won, in Lancaster, Harvard and Shirley, numerous converts to her peculiar doctrines, who soon organized a community, choosing for their place of residence a fertile valley near the junction of the three towns. A field for their dead was selected within the bounds of Lancaster, a few rods from the Shirley line. In it, running north and south, are long rows of graves, each with its little head and foot-stone about eighteen inches in height. These memorials are all of rough slate from a quarry near by, save the few erected since 1860, which are of white marble. A large majority of the inscriptions, especially of the older ones, consist of two letters only. The following list includes all of dates before 1850, and begins with the western-most row.

THE NORTH BURIAL GROUND.

At a town-meeting in April, 1800, the fourth article of the warrant was: "To consider the expediency of appropriating a certain piece of land at the north part of the town, where a number of persons are buried, for the purpose of a burying field." A committee, to whom the matter was intrusted with full powers to act, reported, in the following May, that they had "Received a quitclaim Deed of Mr Elijah Wiles of 112 Rods of Ground, being 16 Rods in length bounding on the Road leading by Col. Henry Haskell to Harvard, and 7 Rods deep." The deed found in the town's archives, however, is dated February 20, 1805, whereby Elijah Wilds conveys to the town 144 rods of land, measuring 8 rods along the highway, and 18 rods in depth. In the public burial place thus established are numerous graves mostly undistinguished by monuments. The epitaphs dating prior to 1850 are :
